Twenty-five years ago by twenty-five interested in vacation travel, the M.T.T. grew to 500 active trailer families from Ohio, Indiana, and Ontario.

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce and the Bear Mountain Recreation Area have formulated the plans for the weekend rally.

The Grayling Woman's Club have been asked to hold a bake sale at the site of the Rally, and the Chamber with the help of merchants and the Conservation Department have made gift kits available for all registrants of the Michigan Travel Trailer Club.

ARC Appeals For Blood Donations

A plea to residents of Crawford County planning vacations to include a blood donation in their preparations, was issued today by the American Red Cross.

Pointing out that "accidents and illness never take a holiday," Mrs. Howard Morse, chairman of the Crawford County Red Cross Chapter, said that blood donations invariably dwindle to their lowest point in the summer time, while the need for blood, mainly due to summer highway accidents, frequently increases.

Final Canadian Trip

Progressing well for Grayling Charter, Saginaw fishing trip.

To be the last trip from Grayling. During 7 years, 180 men have taken this fabulous fishing trip from Grayling, by chartered DC-3 aircraft traveling some 2,000 miles to the Northwest.

Spectacular Arctic grayling size lake trout and pike have been the best for most, but the scenery and wildlife, the brown and black bear, moose, lynx, and muskoxen, have been high on the camera bugs.

Leaves the Grayling Thursday evening, Sept. 14, Sunday afternoon.

Four vacancies at interested fisherman contact Clarence Hobbs, 24251 1st, Grayling, 49831 for full participation in the trip.

Summer Camp Enjoys Sleeping Dunes, Other Activities

Over a week a beautiful board display had the youngsters in the Sand Dunes Day Camp. The excursion to the Sand Dunes at Sleeping Bear State Park. The colorful display was created by Mrs. Pam and several of the Junior leaders on the camp staff.

Visit to the sand dunes, even more delightful than anticipated. Eighty-two youngsters were provided with weatherman. Many of the boys and girls climbed the sand dunes more than six feet. Several of the boys entered a game of touch football on the dunes.

Students from two other programs, namely Kings and Onkema, were at the dunes when the Grayling arrived. Later in the day campers joined together for a picnic.

The day's events completed with a picnic. The Grayling campers and over three hundred campers, two hundred campers, ten watermelon, and all the chips they could eat, but happy, group of campers returned to Grayling at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Bear Museum building at Bear Mountain has been nearly completed. The carpeting was laid last week and this week it was expected to start moving materials and exhibits into the building. This will probably take two or three weeks longer, but Bear Archery Company is shooting for an opening date around the end of August.

On the ground floor of the building will be the main room containing all of Fred Bear's hunting trophies from three continents, plus one of the world's largest collections of archery artifacts. In addition to the museum the ground floor will house a "pro" shop and a gift shop.

Upstairs in the story and a half center of the building is a movie theatre seating about 70 people.

The buildings at Ausagra Acres are about half-way completed, according to Housing Director Lora Gould. Brick work is now being put on the one-story elderly housing site A. Last week the community building housing the office and maintenance where Mrs. Gould will be in charge, was being put up and the duplex two-story buildings for the low-income families. Brickwork was started on these this week.

Drywall and partitions were put up and the plumbing installed, all the electrical, gas and water underground work completed and the outlets are being brought into the buildings.

December 15 is completion date for the entire project, but it is hoped to have the elderly site completed before that time. Mrs. Gould stated that applications for the elderly housing would be taken around the end of August or first of September. She is to attend a school of instruction in Chicago on August 13, 14, 15, and 16th, where she will take courses on record-keeping, bookkeeping, attendance, rules of occupancy and so forth.

For Two Weeks Training

Ohio Guard Due

COLUMBUS, Ohio — This summer's second batch of Ohioans arrives at Camp Grayling this weekend for two weeks of annual summer field training.

About 5,500 members of the Ohio National Guard's 37th Infantry Division, plus nearly 1,000 Army reservists attached for the two weeks, arrive en masse this Saturday.

It is the eighth straight year the Buckeye Division is conducting its field training at Camp Grayling.

Earlier this summer, the 107th Armored Cavalry, also a part of the Ohio National Guard but not affiliated with the division, trained at Grayling for the first time.

As in past years, many units of the 37th Division will move directly into the field for live-fire maneuvers. Many others will move into the cantonment area around Lake Margrethe. Some will not spend any time in the field this summer, a departure from past years when virtually all units spent at least one week bivouacked in the Grayling area.

Most of the Guardsmen will travel to Grayling, as in the past, in military convoy—arriving throughout the day Saturday over three basic routes.

One is US-23 to Michigan 76, to US-76 near Standish, Houghton Lake, and Grayling. Another is US-20 to US-127, to US-27 around Mt. Pleasant, Harrison, and into Grayling. The third is Michigan 43, Michigan 66, Michigan 72, and Michigan 93 through Tonia, Stanton, Kalkaska, and on to Grayling.

As last year, unit commanders can allow a certain percentage of their men to drive cars to camp.

The 1,000 attached reservists will be driving for the most part. As in the past, their cars will be impounded during training hours and likely will be released for the middle weekend following the annual Governor's Review.

Ohio's Governor, James A. Rhodes, is expected at Grayling once again Saturday morning August 5, at 10 a. m. to review the Division.

Thousands of Ohioans — families and friends of the Guardsmen — are due in the area for the weekend review. Most of the men will be released to spend the time with families and/or recreational activities during the middle weekend, following the review.

The public is cordially invited, and encouraged, to witness the full-scale review at the camp.

In addition to families coming for the weekend, many more Guardsmen will be bringing their families for the entire two weeks.

Four Local Thinclads In State Meet

The climax to The Grayling Area Jaycees' first Jr. Champ program came last Saturday when four Grayling youths traveled to Waterford, Michigan to compete in the state finals. The best trackmen from each local meet throughout the state, nearly four hundred of them, were in attendance for the finals.

The Grayling delegation consisted of John Horning, Dave Bailey, Larry Stephenson and Alan Lowe. Local track coach Don Ferguson, and Tom Trenary, one of the local chairmen of Grayling's meet, chaperoned the youths.

John Horning placed fourteenth in a host of miles. Dave Bailey was eighth in the 200-yard dash from a field of 24. Larry Stephenson, also in a field of twenty-four, finished ninth and Alan Lowe has a 12th place finish in a field of 30 broad jumpers.

The group left Grayling at 6:30 in the morning and returned at about the same time in the evening. The trip, track meet and the clinic that followed all made for a very complete day.

Now that the Jaycees' first Jr. Champ is completed, plans for the second will be started. Local Jaycee President Terry Wyers promises an even better local meet next year and voiced his hopes that more local winners will go to the state meet.

POULTRY TO HOLD POTLUCK DINNER

All members of the O.E.S., and their families are invited to attend the dinner. Mrs. Bassett is a guest of Mrs. Olin Williamson next week. She is a friend of Mrs. Joseph Smith, who has been coming to Grayling for many years.

A. J. Karpus Retires From State

LANSING — A. J. (Joe) Karpus, the State Highway Commission's only equipment engineer and a well-known athlete in the early 1920's, will retire Friday after 30 years of service.

Karpus, a seven-letter winner at the University of Michigan and later a professional baseball player, has been responsible for writing the specifications for all automotive and special equipment purchased by the Highway Department.

As equipment engineer, he played key roles in development of a centerline paint machine, under-body snow plow blades for heavy trucks, and for the hydraulic system used on Highway Department trucks.

A native of Bay City, Karpus grew up in Grayling where he was an outstanding athlete at Grayling High.

He entered the University of Michigan during World War I as a member of the Navy Officers Training Corps.

After graduation, he played professional baseball for the Bay City Wolves and Saginaw Aces in the old Michigan-Ontario League. He also played professional basketball in Detroit.

He and his wife, Angela, live at 322 N. Butler. They plan to travel before moving to the Bay City-Saginaw area.

Detroit Riot Interrupts Training Here

Michigan's 46th Division training program came to an abrupt halt Sunday when troops were ordered to Detroit to help quell the riot going on there.

Governor Romney issued the call to the Division Sunday afternoon and by midnight the major portion had left Camp Grayling.

In the first occurrence of its kind, the Michigan National Guard was interrupted in its annual field training and was changed from AFT status to State Mobilization status because of the rioting which broke out in Detroit.

At first, units in the southwestern part of the state which had been at Grayling earlier with the Indiana Guard, were sent into Detroit, and Sunday shortly after midnight three thousand left Camp Grayling for the state's major city.

More men have been sent down daily until as of Tuesday around four thousand had left the camp, with about 700 men in a supporting element staying on to furnish supplies to the troops, including several hundred trucks, quarter-ton APC's and everything else requested.

General Schnipke accompanied the Guard to Detroit but has returned. The 46th Division will be leaving Grayling Saturday. They will be replaced here by Ohio's 37th Division.

At a meeting held Tuesday morning at Camp Grayling, information was received that as of 11:20 p.m. Monday, July 24th, the Michigan 46th Infantry Division had been federalized, except for State Headquarters Detachment army and air units.

The Division is now under the command of Lieutenant General John Throckmorton, Commanding General of the 18th Airborne Corps, and all orders will originate from his office.

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce has been advised by Michigan National Guard Officials that laundry and dry cleaning left by the Guard will be picked up at the earliest possible time.

Also, any accounts by the Guard with Grayling businesses will be taken care of as quickly as possible after the present emergency has ended.

DISPOSABLE BOTTLE IN USE AT MERCY

Pre-sterilized products in pre-filled hermetically sealed disposable bottles with pre-sterilized, screw-type nipple units in sealed caps have been introduced at Mercy hospital. In addition, any standard screw-type reusable unit can be applied to the Nursette bottle.

The Nursette disposable bottle service can be used for the feeding of infants and children in the premature, newborn and pediatric nurseries.

Time and labor for preparation of formula and washing, sterilizing, and filling of bottles are eliminated.

In addition, it eliminates the chance for error in mixing and measuring ingredients. Formula need not be autoclaved. Bottles need not be warmed. All products included can be fed at room temperature.

This new modern service is offered to the patients at no additional cost.

HAM RALLY WELL ATTENDED

The three-day Ham Rally held at Bear Mountain last week drew over three hundred. Everyone was very well satisfied, according to rally chairman Bob Meaker. There were representatives from New York State, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and many, many from Michigan. A large percentage said they planned to come here another time.

There were business meetings, games for the children, and something for everyone. The efforts of Lewis Stillwagon and Mickey in setting up the picnic were likewise appreciated.

Graying Education Association Meets

A regular meeting of the Graying Education Association was held at the Maple Forest Township Hall on Thursday, July 20, 1967. A pot-luck dinner preceded the business meeting. President Fay Bovee presided at the meeting. Mrs. Mary Wakeley served as acting secretary for the group.

Business for the meeting consisted of reports on the Professional Negotiations Workshop held at Indian River and a summary of the work of the Professional Negotiations Committee up to date. Howard Taylor and George Nelson discussed the progress made by other schools in Regions 14 and 15 toward next year's teaching contracts. The proposed salary schedule for each school in Region 14 and 15 was reviewed.

Howard Taylor, Chairman of the Professional Negotiations Committee, reported on the progress made thus far in negotiations on next year's contract. Board of Education proposals were discussed. The Committee, using the power delegated to it by the Graying Education Association, has rejected the Board's proposal and presented two alternate proposals. The process of going to Mediation and Fact Finding were then discussed.

ed. There was a consensus of opinion that teachers should withhold services should they fail to negotiate a Master Contract by the opening date for school this September. A special meeting of the Graying Education Association has been called for Thursday, July 27, 1967, at 8:00 p.m. It will be held at the Graying Elementary School. A vote will be taken as to whether or not the teachers should withhold services. It was felt that should the vote pass, this will give any teacher who does not agree, ample time to seek other employment before the beginning of the new school year. The special meeting will give any teacher who was unavoidably detained from attending the July 20th meeting an opportunity to express his opinion.

Other important business to be voted on at the special July 27th meeting will be the voting to accept or reject "Unified Membership" and "Continuing Membership" in the professional organization.

Virginia Minor was appointed as Chairman of the M.E.A. Insurance Committee. She will represent the G.E.A. at a meeting on M.E.A. Insurance later this summer. The meeting is tentatively set for Lansing.

The members voted to hold the next regular meeting on Thursday, August 17, 1967, at the Maple Forest Township Hall. This meeting will also be preceded by a pot-luck dinner at 7:00 p.m.

TO HOLD THRESHING DAY AT MAYVILLE

For the third year Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Manwell of Mayville, Michigan are holding an old-fashioned Threshing Day at their farm, open to the public. Mrs. Manwell is the former Marian Benedict, daughter of the late Reverend E. A. Benedict who many years ago served Graying's Michelson Memorial church.

The observation grew out of the desire of some of Mayville's oldtimers to renew old customs. When one citizen learned the Manwells planned to harvest their grain, he invited other oldtimers to come with their teams of horses, pitchforks, etc., to help. That first year over 500 people came and were fed bean soup and coffee. The second year the Manwells were mentioned by Bud Guest and over 10,000 guests from the States and Canada came.

So this year, the Third Annual Threshing Day will be on August 5th, if Michigan weather permits. A real steam engine will be on the job, a team of "oxen" will be put through their paces, and there will be antique exhibits, sheep shearing, spinning, butter churning and so forth. There will be plenty of snacks and meals for all, although they can no longer be free due to the size of the crowd. Last year guests wore old-fashioned costumes, and the Manwells are encouraging those who wish to do so again. The only restriction is that no liquor can be brought to the farm. The threshing and demonstrations are free of charge.

MICHIGAN STATE POLICE

State Police trooper pay begins at $6,368 and climbs in the trooper rank to $9,105 after six years. Troopers work a five-day week, get paid vacations and sick leave, free uniforms and equipment. Other benefits include a pension which also protects the wife. Young men can get facts at any State Police post.

Special Meeting Of G.E.A. Called

A special meeting of the Graying Education Association (Teachers' Club) will be held on Thursday, July 27, 1967, at 8:00 p.m. It will be held at the Graying Elementary School. All teachers are urged to be present.

Economy Is Not A Bad Word

Over the nation, states are struggling with the idea of bringing their budgets within their income. Alternative is more debt unless higher taxes are added, and the people are emphatically opposing in taxes. During boom years, tax receipts have been of public money has been spent like water. Now, when there has been "cooled", it becomes a case of debt, or higher taxes.

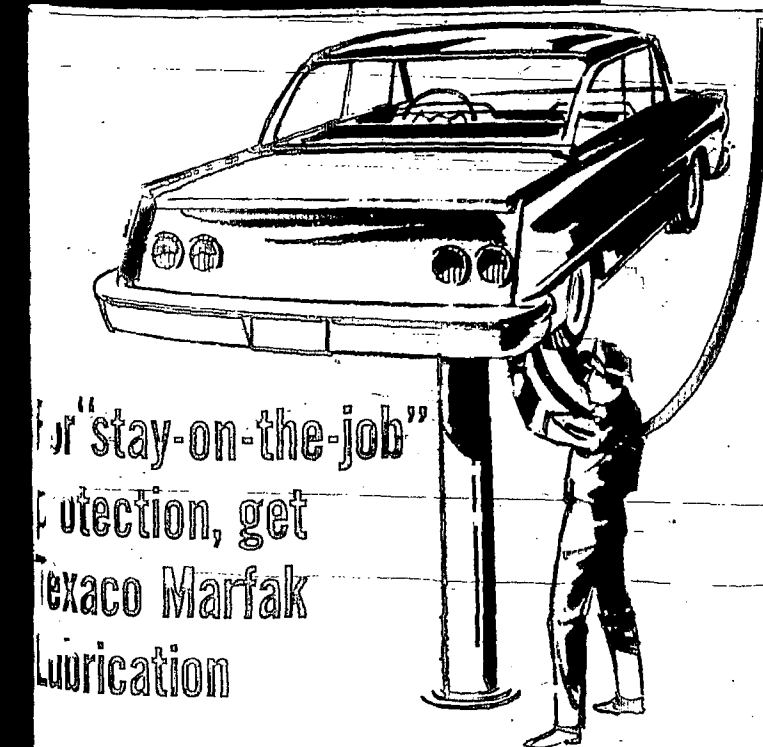

The federal government is in the same position, but according to official statements, there will be little or no of domestic social expenditures in the face of the war costs. So, get ready for more debt, higher taxes, and more inflation.

It has been said about what will happen when consumers outnumber the tax earners. With the economy out the window one wonders if the countries we are in will have a foreign aid program for us.

FOONA, PA. MIRROR: "The government of Vietnam negotiated a mutual assistance pact with the United States in which we agreed to come to its aid in event of aggression. We got the call. We did. We fulfill the terms of a treaty, we also open the door to the U.S. will be the last bastion of the free world in global communism, with the alternative being — or fight the last great battle."

Announcement has been made by Lt. and Mrs. Edgar Teach of Springfield, Ohio, of the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ernestine, to Capt. John Henry Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Holger Peterson of Grayling. Miss Teach now a Yeoman, Second Class, in the United States Naval Reserve, stationed at Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, is a graduate of Miamisburg, Ohio High School.

Since we started the work of rebuilding of our two cemeteries a little over one year ago, we are very much encouraged by the cooperation which we have received as a whole from our community as a whole and from non resident owners of lots. As our work progresses in both cemeteries, we run across some very interesting and very old monuments, recalling to mind those hardy pioneers who settled Crawford County in the early seventies. Among them we note the name of August Sachs, lumberman, perhaps one of the first to be laid away, as the village of Grayling was founded in 1878. Another hardy old pioneer was Archibald MacNeven. When the village was first platted Mr. MacNeven took a contract to dig up all of the old stumps on the Main Street for the sum of fifty cents per stump, and it is recorded that he made as much as two dollars per day. Cemetery Committee, T. W. Hanson, C. J. McNamara, Daisy Norris.

The South Branch neighbors were quite surprised last Saturday afternoon when an airplane landed in a nearby field, but later found out that it was Mr. and Mrs. Quarstroms of Detroit, who had come to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forrester.

The men of South Branch community have responded in a fine way to the challenge of bringing their implements and donate a day's work to the Church farm, each year. Last week Charles Papenbus brought his caterpillar tractor and cleared several acres of stumps and large stones. He kept a volunteer crew busy picking up and hauling them away.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bielki have returned from Detroit after residing there a year and a half and plan to remain here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Babbitt and small child of Detroit are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bunker.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Papendick and sons Clifton and Victor spent the weekend visiting Mrs. Papendick's brother, Edgar Newell, in Traverse City, and her father, Clifton Newell, in Lake City.

Gerald Burns left Wednesday night for Fort Sheridan, Illinois. After a brief stay there he will be transferred to Shepherd, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes joined Mrs. Hayes' parents, Dr. and Mrs. C.R. Keyport, at Mackinac Island Saturday and they all returned Sunday.

Shirlee Souders of Mason spent last week visiting Sally Gross. This week she is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Corsaut at Frederic.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Ryder of Modesto, Calif., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Welsh this week. Mrs. Ryder is a sister of Fred Welsh, and this is their first trip back to Michigan since they moved to California in 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Corbat and children Nancy, Jerry and Betty Jean of Midland and Mrs. Corbat's mother, Mrs. Nellie Kalahar, sister Miss Sarah Kalahar and little niece, Frances Ann Kalahar of Merrill spent a few days the last of the week at the home of Henry Jordan. They were also guests at the home of Mrs. B. J. Callahan.

Mrs. James Hodgson of Birmingham joined his family at Lake Margrethe Friday for the remainder of the summer.

Bob Chappell spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Ruby Chappell, and sisters. He returned to Grosse Ile.

Carla Moshier In Denmark

Vejle, Denmark
July 14, 1967

Greetings from Denmark!

Well, here I am in Vejle, Denmark. It is located on the peninsula of Jutland, and is a very beautiful seaport town.

The flight over was real nice; we landed in Copenhagen. To get from Copenhagen to Vejle I had to take a bus, train, ship and a car.

Our group spent a day and a half in Copenhagen before we each went our separate ways. We stayed at a Hostie Camp and as there weren't enough beds I slept on the floor. I thought the camp was real nice.

While we were in Copenhagen we met two of their five mayors and were taken on a tour of the city. We saw a school about equal to our Jr. Colleges; they called it a gymnasium. The first night we went to Tivole Gardens; it is a huge fair and was really great.

Most of the people are blonde and extremely friendly but my family has dark hair. The countryside is just like at home except each field is smaller and the houses are real small. The weather, so far, is much like our spring weather.

Dad, Thorvald Kibsgaard, doesn't speak any English and my Danish isn't much better so we talk through the rest of the family. Mom, Gudrun, speaks some English and smokes cigars (this is quite common here.) I have three sisters, Helen is married and lives in Copenhagen; she has a cute four-year-old daughter, Anne-Grete is going to gymnastic school in Copenhagen but is home for the summer holidays. She has one more year of schooling and then she will be a swimming teacher. She reminds me of my brother Richard, kinda loud, always eating and they always seem to enjoy themselves. Lene is 18 years old and was just getting out of school when I got here.

My family used to live on a big farm but now they operate a Smorrebrod in Vejle. It consists of two rooms, one is a kitchen.

bara of Detroit were guests of Mrs. Emil Niederer and family during the past week.

Joyce Myers of Detroit is a guest of Miss Billyann Clippert.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Hills left Sunday for several days stay at Bloomfield Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Witham (Helen Brady) of Detroit are visiting Mrs. Witham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brady.

G. A. Kraus and son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Kraus and two daughters returned to Chicago Saturday after spending a fortnight with Mrs. Kraus at their summer home on Lake Margrethe. Today Mrs. Kraus is expecting her daughter Mrs. Charles Schreiber and two sons, Richard and James of Chicago, and Misses Joan and Jerry Ann McFadden of Grand Haven.

T. Cpl. Perry Wells and Cpl. Frank May are now in England. Both are in the same outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Wakeley have received word that their son Seely is in Pearl Harbor. He says he likes it fine but it is not like Grayling. He receives his mail thru the FPO at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry George of Detroit arrived Sunday and will spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cliff at their home at Lake Margrethe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Erikson are occupying the McCullough house on the corner of Peninsular and Ottawa streets.

Kathleen Wood of Midland is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Failing a few weeks.

46 YEARS AGO
July 28, 1921

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Love and daughter Roberta are spending a couple of weeks at Manistee.

Mrs. Collin W. Wight received news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Ann Oliver, wife of Thomas Oliver of Decatur, Ill. The Olivers were former residents of Grayling, during which time they managed the 'Grayling House', located where Shoppenagons Inn now stands and which burned several years ago, sometime near 1900. Mrs. Oliver was a sister of the late Mrs. John Hum.

Miss Mabel Dawson of Detroit is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Alonzo Collins and brother Earl Dawson and families.

Nels Michelson celebrated the opening of the subdivision for resorters at Houghton Lake with a dinner at his 600-acre farm, located on Houghton Lake also. The subdivision that is soon to become a village of happy summer homes is located south of the farm home. This will be platted into 97 lots.

Oscar Smith and Axel Jorgenson are among the first boys in Grayling to receive the State Soldiers' bonus, which is being distributed.

Mrs. Charles Gallup of Boston, who spends her summers at Lake Margrethe, entertained a number of her friends at 500 Friday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Simpson, Mrs. Rasmus Hanson and Mrs. A. J. Joseph received prizes.

where they make the sandwiches, the other room has a counter and cash register. The sandwiches are displayed in the show window and a few on racks behind the counter. Customers come in, pick out the sandwiches they want or if they want something not in the shop they are made up in the kitchen. The customer then takes his sandwiches home or where ever he wishes to eat. Their shop is different than a Smorrebrod. Smorrebrod means bread and butter.

Our meals are all cooked in the shop and brought home.

I went to Rebild, July fourth. It is the only place in Denmark that celebrates our Independence Day. There were no fireworks, just speeches and songs. The setting was beautiful and impressive. It took place in a valley and on top of alternating hills surrounding the valley were American and Danish flags. Down in the valley both flags stood side by side.

Last Monday we visited the Cathedral of Ribe. It is very old with many important people buried in it. The entrance is a combination doorway and pipe organ. The Cathedral has a square clock tower that we climbed. Part way up I doubted I would make the top but I did. The view was really something, well worth the effort to get there, orange topped houses and shops with patches of different shades of green at our feet and a river in the background.

Later we had tea in an old hotel. It was very elegant and romantic looking with its royal red wall paper.

One day we went swimming in the Vejle Fjord. Imagine me, who can't stand bugs, spiders, etc., swimming in water with jelly fish and all that good seaweed. To top this, I took a pretty good chunk off my big toe on a rock and in that salt water it really stung, but we did have fun.

Sunday, July 16th, Mom, Lene, Anne-Grete and I are going to visit some relatives until Tuesday, then the girls and I are going to take a bus to a gymnastic camp farther north in Jutland. Boys and girls from all over Denmark will be there. When we come back from camp it will be just three days until we have to take Anne-Grete back to school. They don't have much of a vacation or "holiday" as they call it. Oh yes, I understand this gymnastic camp is just what they call it — "gymnastics and swim-" ing are the main activities. Sometime we are going to visit relatives in Falster which should be interesting because it is from here that my great-grandfather migrated.

I am having a wonderful time as you can easily tell.

See you in August

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:
This is addressed to the heartless characters who drop off defenseless animals to starve or get run over by cars. No one else wants them, we have our own. If you don't want them destroyed take them to a shelter at Traverse City, but don't burden someone else with them. Three small kittens were dropped Wednesday night in front of my house, almost were hit and one was sick. They were scared. Don't HAVE them if you can't raise them.
Truly disgusted,
Mrs. Robert Springs

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:
This is addressed to the heartless characters who drop off defenseless animals to starve or get run over by cars. No one else wants them, we have our own. If you don't want them destroyed take them to a shelter at Traverse City, but don't burden someone else with them. Three small kittens were dropped Wednesday night in front of my house, almost were hit and one was sick. They were scared. Don't HAVE them if you can't raise them.
Truly disgusted,
Mrs. Robert Springs

Summer Camp

of the youngsters have learned to swim during the past few weeks. Several have progressed to the point where they are permitted to use the diving board. Only one or two children show any fear of the water.

Among other events during the past week was the showing of a movie entitled "Yosemite National Park." The picture explained the need for conserving our natural resources, as well as describing one of our nation's most loved national parks.

Several of the reading classes listened to taped short stories. Later they discussed the stories and were then given an opportunity to re-tell the stories in their own words, thus having an opportunity to practice public speaking and dramatization. One of the children also brought a record on space when his class was reading a story on space. Kendall and Suzy Skrouse brought two of their little kittens to class when their groups were discussing animal pets and learning to identify types of wildlife.

One of the most successful aids to the reading improvement program has been the Peabody Language Development Kit. Included in the kit are a set of puppets and a walkie-talkie telephone. These are used to help children overcome shyness and to get them to speak freely in class. Among other things, are various series of art pictures, such as several on predictions for the future, which permit youngsters to use their imagination. Several types of reading and workbooks are also used. Both individual and group instruction is provided for the children.

A special event scheduled for Thursday, August 3rd, is a potluck dinner. This will be held at 6:30 p. m. Parents and all children in the families of the summer campers are invited to participate. Families are asked to bring a dish to pass. Camp staff members will furnish coffee, sugar and cream, butter and rolls, milk, and dessert. Fraser Dean, the Camp Director plans to send out a letter to each family shortly before the date of the scheduled dinner.

The final camp excursion planned for this summer will be on Friday, August 4th. At that time the summer school participants will travel to Traverse City to attend a children's production at the Cherry County Summer Playhouse. The play is scheduled for the morning. After a picnic lunch at noon, the youngsters will climax the day's events by visiting the zoo at Traverse City.

SHERIFF'S REPORT

During the week of July 18 through 24th the Sheriff's Department gave assistance at three fires, police five accidents, and 1 watercraft accident, responded to three ambulance calls, recovered 1 stolen car, delivered five emergency messages, investigated two break-ins of cottages, and the recovery of one billfold, investigated three vandalism complaints, two at Lake Margrethe and one at Pere Cheney Cemetery, took two subjects to Traverse City for lie-detector tests, and responded to several complaints concerning campgrounds.

In the watercraft accident, Thursday, July 20, at Lake Margrethe, two young boys driving a motorboat hit another craft driven by Wilford A. Gool, causing Mrs. Gool to fall from the boat and in doing so to suffer severe lacerations. Both boats were damaged and one extensively so. A citation was issued and the driver of the one boat will have to appear before Judge of Probate Emil Kraus.

Program On Nursing

The American Broadcasting Company has notified Pres. Laura Morse of the N. Central Dist. Nurses Ass'n. that the documentary on nursing, "Nurses: Crises in Medicine" will be part of the Summer Focus Series and will be televised on Thursday, August 3, from 10 to 11 p. m. EDT, 9 to 10 p. m. CDT. Because of the possibility of unexpected local changes, nurses are urged to check their local TV listings for any differences. One of the reasons the show was rescheduled on the Summer Focus Series, which has received considerable national acclaim, was the splendid response from nurses who urged that the material not be dropped but rescheduled as soon as possible.

"Beware Poison Ivy"

By Willard Bosserman
County Extension Natural Resource Agent

The rain and warm weather we have been having the past two months has grown some beautiful poison ivy plants. They will be found in low shady areas. To people who react to poison ivy the results of contact can be very uncomfortable. The plant is generally fairly low growing. It seldom reaches a height of over 12 inches. This year some may be a little higher. Poison ivy has three leaves. The leaves remind you a little of holly because they are dark green with a slight gloss.

Don't touch poison ivy. It has an irritating oil that causes an itchy rash. Fumes from burning poison ivy can also cause the rash. "Brushkiller" is one of the most common herbicides used to kill poison ivy. Brushkiller is a combination of 2, 4-D and 2, 4, 5-T. It is mixed and sold as brushkiller. For small amounts mix 2 tablespoons of brushkiller per gallon of water. If the poison ivy is not dead within 10 to 14 days, give it another application.

Three Area Students In College Seminar

Three Junior High students from the Crawford-AuSable schools left yesterday to spend a week on the campus of Alma College involved in an Art-Science Seminar. The students are Gerald King, Don Elsey and Jackie McEvers. They will spend the remainder of the week in an intensive study of art, astronomy and outdoor biological science.

This seminar, held on the Alma College campus is a pilot study sponsored by the Mott Foundation of Flint and headed by Terry Meeder of Alma College. This is the first time that anything of this type has been held in the state. It is hoped that much can be learned from this pilot group and that in future years a more extensive program can be arranged.

The three students selected to go to the seminar from the Grayling area were selected because of their high academic standings and their interest in the fields to be covered at the seminar.

The Art-Science seminar is coordinated by George Gibbs of Alma, a noted biologist. Some of the week's activities will include planetarium demonstrations, telescope observations of the stars, field trips to the famous Vesta-Burg Bog, a geological oddity of the world, experiments in arts and crafts and supervised recreation.

"The AuSable Is The Greatest"

Ed Rogers, Warren, Mich. "Fishing as good as 15 Years ago."

By Willard Bosserman
County Extension
Natural Resource Agent

Recently the AuSable River in northern Michigan has received some unkind publicity because of a new definition of pollution. In an endeavor by the Water Resources Commission and local people to make the best better, some people got the impression that the AuSable is something less than the greatest.

When pollution is spoken of in northern Michigan it generally means that a greater supply of plant nutrients than is desirable for trout, is present. Strides are being taken by local authorities to correct this condition. It in no way hinders the river's use by those who love the out-of-doors.

Harold Cliff, Grayling City Manager, says they are able to take out between 80 and 90 percent of the phosphates and organic matter from the effluent from their treatment plant.

Bruce Smith, operator of a canoe livery, demonstrated his faith in the purity of the AuSable by drinking a glass of water taken from the river.

Bernard Fowler, Grayling Township Supervisor, believes the water is of better quality than it was several years ago when there was a gun powder plant in Grayling. Fowler was the stern paddler in the winning canoe for three successive years in the Grayling to Oscoda canoe race, and is Chairman of the Crawford County Board of Supervisors.

The AuSable river begins as a cool sparkling spring east of Gaylord in Otsego County. Water from beautiful Otsego Lake finds its way to the AuSable. The "River of Sands", heads straight south, giving the people of Frederic part of its scenic beauty as it passes within a stone's throw of that town.

When the AuSable reaches Grayling it leaves its southward trek and starts winding its way eastward towards Lake Huron. The residents of Crawford in 1874 renamed their city Grayling after the fish that were once so plentiful in the AuSable.

Gertrude Hendrickson, who did a study of the AuSable in 1963, reported in "Michigan's AuSable River Today and Tomorrow," that trout replaced the grayling around the 1890's. Since that time the AuSable has become a famous trout fisherman's paradise.

The East Branch, which adds to the joys of visitors to Hartwick Pines State Park, joins the AuSable just east of Grayling.

Canoe enthusiasts find great pleasure in floating the serene waters. Canoeists starting from Grayling meet those embarking from Boscommon where the South Branch joins the main stream 15 miles east of Grayling. Those traversing the South Branch pass through 14 miles of untouched wilderness left to the State of Michigan by the late

George W. Mason.

The Mason Chapel located along this stretch of the South Branch is a favorite stopping off place for canoeist and fisherman alike.

Some stay over night at Canoe Harbor. Canoe Harbor is located along the wilderness stretch between Chase Bridge and Smith Bridge.

W. C. Kasson, along with other fathers from Flushing, Michigan and their daughters enjoyed a rest at Canoe Harbor July 15. Kasson said he had taken boy scout troops down the river for ten years. He and other fathers decided to make it a father-daughter trip this year. Many other camp sites along the river serve the canoeists over night.

A few miles down stream towards the east, the river flows through Mio. Sportsman Park at Mio is the home of the largest forestry exposition in the country.

The AuSable glides past Glenview and finishes its 220 mile journey at Oscoda where it flows gently into Lake Huron, supplying it with clean sparkling water. The AuSable and its tributaries give trout fishermen many pleasant hours as they pit their skill against the wary trout.

Ed Rogers, Warren, Michigan, says he has been fishing the AuSable for 15 years. He reported that the fishing is as good as ever. He said, "If property owners did not cut the trees and brush along the river, the water would be cooler, and trout like cool water." Rogers also noted an increase in beer cans and pop bottles but said somebody does a good job of keeping them picked up.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Turpening and daughter Julie, of Toledo, Ohio, enjoyed a leisurely trip down the South Branch of the AuSable July 15.

The AuSable and its tributaries are particularly good for family trips as the Turpenings and many other families will testify. Its popularity as a trout stream, canoeist paradise and the family cottage site has its price. Although the AuSable is still the greatest attraction for nature lovers, local officials see need for action to preserve its virginity.

Two recommendations made by the Michigan Water Resources Commission in their report "Water Resource Condition and Uses in the AuSable River Basin," 1966 will have far reaching effects when carried out. The recommendations are summarized in two sentences, "to materially improve the quality of the water in the mainstream of the AuSable river, and to protect the trout fishery from degradation, two steps must be taken. The quantity of nutrients being added to the stream must be reduced to a minimum and the water temperature lowered."

Local officials are examining every avenue to accomplish these recommendations.

They are also asking users of the river to help preserve its natural beauty by obeying simple rules of courtesy. One of the first rules when visiting any natural beauty is to leave the property as attractive as when you arrived. This means taking your litter with you to deposit in a place provided for litter. Leave the natural plants intact. Do not cut trees, shrubbery and brush along the stream bank. You have enjoyed the natural beauty of the AuSable, let others find it just as beautiful.

If we all pull together the AuSable can still be the greatest for many years to come.

It takes many hundreds of miles of telephone wire for Ohio's 37th Infantry Division to communicate during summer field training. Installing and maintaining that wire and the all-important communications set-up are members of the 137th Signal Battalion, based in Columbus. Pictured here in their army, working on one of the switchboards that will make up the division's telephone system, are, from left: SFC Chester Swisher of Urbana, Sgt. Charles Massie of Springfield, Staff Sgt. Noble Cupps of Urbana, and Staff Sgt. Ned Turvy of Columbus, behind switchboard.

camp this summer unsure about its future. It is one of 15 (Michigan's National Guard Division is another) that would be lost in a proposed realignment of the Reserve and National Guard, now being discussed in Congress.

If approved, Ohio and Michigan would get brigades to replace the larger divisions.

The brigades, however, would be of higher priority, meaning they would be authorized nearly 100 per cent of men and equipment for faster mobilization, if necessary.

The divisions now fall into the "reinforcing reserve" category and, as such, are of a lower priority, authorized less men and equipment.

Ohio's 37th still is commanded by Major General Wilbur H. Fricke of Waynesville, near Dayton. Of the proposed realignment, he said: "We observed, many times, that our future depended on excellent performance at field training. It is true now as perhaps never before. I believe that our 'can do' attitude and our willingness to work hard toward accomplishment of our goals in the past have insured our existence to date. I believe that excellence in performance will continue to insure our existence."

General Fricke's assistant commanders are Brigadier Generals William Morr of Columbus and George Graf of Findlay.

The Ohioans this year have a tough act to follow—their last year's performance, one of their best on record.

Under a new rating system, the units received 259 superior, 440 satisfactory, and only 7 unsatisfactory marks on training.

Regular Army and Reserve evaluators will be on hand once again to score virtually every phase of the training.

Again, guerrilla training will be stressed, as Vietnam experiences continue to influence the Guard training. Each unit will be required to conduct a number of maneuvers involving gressor troops.

By the time the Ohioans Grayling August 12, they have fired weapons from a caliber pistol to the eagle gun, largest artillery piece authorized.
